

As a XM user, I am alarmed that the FCC would consider blocking locally oriented content. As a 'for pay' service, XM should be able to service the customer's needs. This attempt by the NAB is self serving and to adapt this petition would be a disservice to the taxpayers.